THE DECLINE OF HONOR.

[From the New York Sun.] The Congregationalist laments "the decline of honor" in our army and navy. "It used to be understood," it says, "that an officer of the United Sates army or navy was a man of honor, as a matter of course. But in these latter days a great and sad change has occur-On the whole there has been a real and a serious deterioration of morthe decline of honor of these latter days has affected not only the officers of the army and navy. It is observable in civil life to a striking extent. Of late hound, etc. Go to your druggist, Charles W. Loomis, and get a bottle: he will present you we have had there some conspicuous examples of moral rottenness among men in whom it was least expected.

men in whom it was least expected.

But the most serious decline of honor and the most damaging to put its morals has not appeared in either the army or the navy or among the general run of society. It has been among the man who have dominated and still rule the party in power. There it is that the seat of the disease is, and thence the contagion disease is, and thence the contagion are respectively. The fraudulent Hayes stole the pres-

The fraudulent Hayes stole the presidency. John Sherman profiting by the theft, became secretary of the treatury. Gardield played an underhand game to get his nomination, and when elected, forfeited his word given during the canvass. Throughout, honor was sacrificed, and a base moral tone pervaded Washington official life. Fraud, sham, cant, cheating and lying were at the head, and no wonder they rioted below.

The republican party must go! EVENINGS AT HOME. (From the Signal.)

The long evenings which follow the short days are made in some families the happiest of all happy times. The cares of the day are ended; the mother's resting-time has come; the father has dropped all sorts of business wor-ries and perplexities, and the whole family throw themselves with sest into the innocent pleasures of the home

It is well for the women of the house hold to remember that the pleasant evenings at home are the strong anti-dotes to the practice of looking for en joyment abroad, and seeking for pleasure in by and forbidden places; for rein somewhere by most men, and happy Measrs. The brothers entered fully into the spirit of the simple home entertainment, and were as loth to be ebliged to spend an evening away from home as their sisters and parents were to have them absent. Every one spoke of this family as an uncommonly united one, for each and every member showed such a strong attachment for the home to which each one contributed so much pleasure.

DIRECTORS:

That is what a great many people are doing. They don't know just what is the matter, but they have a combination of pains and aches, and each month they grow worse.

The only sure remedy yet found is Brown's Iron BITTERS, and this by rapid and thorough assimilation with the blood purifies and enriches it, and rich, strong blood flowing to every part of the system repairs the wasted tissues, drives out disease and gives health and strength.

This is why Brown's Iron BITTERS will cure kidney and liver diseases. consumption, rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia, malaria, intermittent fevers, &c.

Mr. Simon Blanchard, a well-known citisen of Hayesville, Meade county, Kentucky, says: "My wife had been sick for a long time, and her constitution was all broken down and she was unable to work. She was advised to use Brown's Iron Bitters, and found it to work like a charm. We would not now be without it for any consideration, as we out it for any consideration, as we consider it the best tonic in the world."

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is not a drink and does not contain whiskey. It is the only preparation of Iron that causes no injurious effects. Get the genuine. Don't be imposed on with
